

Case Study: Contract Manufacturing High Speed Film Scanner

PEKO provided the manufacturing development for this high speed film (35mm/22mm) scanner system. The scanner had capabilities as high as 800 images per minute with automated roll changeover, allowing unattended running for the wholesale film processing industry. PEKO constructed several systems with our in house manufacturing capabilities including machining, sheet-metal, electromechanical assembly, and final test.

