

Case Study: Contract Manufacturing Government Systems

PEKO has participated in many government systems programs over several years. Our involvement has ranged from manufacturing development to full system integration with test. Regulations and requirements varied demanding PEKO to comply to many standards while maintaining quality levels. With this experience PEKO can provide a total manufacturing solution for your program.

